January-February Prayer Letter

“Time flies!” is a cliché phrase, but there is a reason we say that so much. It is a simple way to state an obvious truth which is often brought to our attention. I bring up this phrase again because it is already a new year.

This past year was an adventure as every year serving the Lord has turned out to be. The first few months was a very busy season of ministry. That was followed by our next step of faith in following the Lord as we moved out to the village of Anan. We were able to see Sunday services started just before we made the trip over the Atlantic to start our furlough. We have updated 40 churches so far about what the Lord is doing in West Africa.

This year starts off our second half of furlough, and it is the year when we are able to return to our home in the Ivory Coast. We are looking forward to continuing in the ministry of establishing the church in the village of Anan and potentially even starting a construction project soon after our arrival.

Another cliché thing is my ending by saying that I appreciate your faithful prayers for our family the ministry to which God has called us. However, I mean it every time I say it. May we see the gospel advance in 2026 as we serve the Lord together.
